NO HANDICAP
FOR RACERS

The Concord, Luka, Ka Moi and Hawaii Will Sail Scratch Race to Kahului.

There will be no handicapping in the race to Kahului. That is one point that was decided yesterday when Commodore Wilder stated that the Hawaii does not need any handicap and he does not want to have any, as he is anxious to try the good schooner out to her utmost on this race and see what she can do alongside larger craft like the Concord and Luka, not to mention that Ka Moi which can always be relied on to go some.

The time of the start of the race is not yet decided on. Figuring out as nearly as possible from past performances of different sailing vessels, it will take, roughly speaking, twenty-six hours to make the course from Honolulu to Kahului harbor. As the crew flies the distance is a trifle short of a hundred miles but, beating to windward as the yachts will have to, they will cover practically twice that distance.

It is desired, if possible, to arrange the start so that the yachts will arrive off Kahului on Friday, June 11, Kamehameha Day, so that the yachtsmen may take part in the festivities prepared for them. The objection to this is that it would mean starting early on Thursday morning and many of the yachtsmen cannot get off then.

To talk the matter over and to decide just when the race shall start, the regatta committee and owners of yachts will meet at the Advertiser business office at 5 o'clock this afternoon. All those who own yachts or who are interested in the matter and have any suggestions are requested to be present.

A way out of the difficulty has been suggested by one of the yachtsmen and that is that the race should start on Thursday and the cruise the following day. But the decision will be left to those who own the yachts and the time will be set to suit the majority.

Captain Low was pleased enough to see the Concord sail into port yesterday morning. He was not quite sure when she would be in and he was anxious that she should get here in plenty of time to unload and be trimmed up for the race.

The unloading of the vessel is being pushed along as fast as possible and then the new sails will be bent on, the schooner cleaned and fixed up generally and made ready for the race of her life. The Pirate Kid is taking a keen interest in this event as is also his partner, Captain Miller, and both the Concord and Luka will certainly crack on all sail.

Members of the yacht club who wish to go on this cruise are again reminded that they should get in their requests early. Captains Low and Miller will have their private parties aboard but there will be room for quite a number on the Hawaii and this race and cruise bids fair to be the most successful and jolly affair ever pulled off by the yacht club.

The finals of the men's doubles for the Bockus and Castle cups will be played on the Beretania courts this afternoon at 4.30. Gee and Lowrey are up against Cunha and Bockus.

RIVERSIDES' TROUBLE PAU

All Difficulties Were Settled at Noon Meeting Held Yesterday.

Perhaps it was George Borrow, any way it was one of those old goops who traveled round the world and learned languages as easily as picking prunes, who tells an Oriental fable about the Soothsayer and the Hadji's troubles. It goes something like this: "Then the Soothsayer raised the bundle in his arms and it was sore heavy. For in it were all the Hadji's troubles. After he had raised it he cast the bundle into the pool of the fountain. Then a strange thing happened for, as the Hadji watched, the bundle dissolved in the clear waters and disappeared, but a bubble rose to the surface and floated up in the still air. Then the Soothsayer blew on the bubble and it burst leaving nothing but a drop of water which fell on the stones and dried up in the heat of the sun. Then would the Hadji pay gold to the Soothsayer but the latter bade him nay, saying, 'My name is Common Sense and my breath is Friendship.'"

Which all refers to the meeting of the Riverside League yesterday afternoon. The C. A. C. committee was there and all the pilikia was talked over. By the time they had finished anybody who tried to find pilikia with a microscope would have had a hard job.

The three teams were asked separately if they would allow the points asked by the dragonets and they said sure they would. It was just what they wanted. The matter of the three-fifths vote was quickly settled by a motion to make it necessary to have a unanimous vote in order to change the by-laws.

Then there was some talk about the personnel of the teams, but this matter was so easily settled that the discussion lasted not more than five minutes. Tonight the C. A. Cs. will have another meeting at which their committee will report and there seems no doubt which way they will vote after everything has been settled so amicably.

There will be another meeting of the Riverside League next Monday at noon at Mr. Atkinson's office. By that time it is expected that the C. A. Cs. will have officially returned to the league and also, it is hoped by those interested in the league, the J. A. Cs. as well.

Meanwhile Secretary Tin Chong will draw up a skeleton schedule naming the teams A, B, C, D and E, and the teams will draw for their letters after the schedule has been made up. The league will start its season a week from Sunday.

N. G. H. TO PLAY AT FORT SHAFTER

The Military League game between Fort Shafter and the N. G. H. will be played at Fort Shafter on Sunday. Lieutenant Chilton has invited the members of the visiting team to mid-day dinner at the Fort. Many of the members will be out there in the morning to shoot and the invitation to stay for dinner will make it unnecessary for them to go back to town to get their baseball uniforms and lunch.

Sergeant Barry has issued the following official order, appropriately headed "Play Ball." The following named members of the N. G. H. baseball team will play the last game of the series of the Military League on Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. on the Fort Shafter diamond: Louie Soares, Henry Bushnell, Lieutenant Marcellino, Lieutenant Sumner, Sam Kaia, Henry Kaai, Dudie Lemon, Abraham Lota, Paul Burns, Manuel Moses, Alex May and Sam Chillingworth. Dinner at Fort Shafter at 12:30, E. S. Barry, manager.

AMUSEMENTS

Plenty Doing in September.

There will be plenty doing in Honolulu in the amusement line during September. About the first of that month the famous Jim Post will arrive here. He will have not only his well-known beauty chorus but a whole company of clever players and a repertoire that will easily enable him to give two shows a week during the two months he will be at the Orpheum.

Will Adams has a theatrical attraction due for that month too. Timothy Daniel Frawley, the man with the Irish voice and the perennial smile, will bring his company through here en route for Australia and India, and will play two weeks at the Opera House. Timothy D. will arrive here probably on September 7 and will have his usual up-to-date repertoire of plays. Nothing much is known about the personnel of his company.

Will Adams' next attraction will be the Herbert Wither's concert company which will be here by June 10 and will give three concerts at the Opera House. There will be Herbert Wither, cellist; Luisa Sobrino, soprano; Charles Bennett, baritone; Mme. Marguerite Elzy, solo pianist, and last but not least, the genial Charlie Gibbons, who is the business manager.

Art Theater.

The acme of excellence in colored moving pictures has of a surety been reached in the film which forms one of the features of tonight's program at the Art. It is entitled "The Bee and the Rose," and is a photographic reproduction of a beautiful and fantastic opera. The charming corymbes are the embodiment of the poetry and grace of motion, and their costumes a harmonious symphony of color. It is a most artistic conception, and will delight all who have a taste for things esthetic.

The stirring and realistic war drama "In Shenandoah Valley," is continued on account of its popularity, and subjects of a lighter and amusing character have not been forgotten in making up a capital week-end program.

Park Theater.

The Park Theater seems to be doing things in getting films that are just a little bit too interesting to be passed by at a glance. They are having a run of such good pictures that the people come back for more. The latest on the card is the reception of the American fleet in Sydney and pictures of all of the receptions and parades on shore during the stay of the ships there. Another picture that makes the hair stand on the head of a baldheaded man is called "Hidden Treasure." It shows the search for wealth that has been out of sight for ages. It will delight everyone who attends the Park. The Malay orchestra and the singing of the Mentel sisters catches the good will of the people, the orchestra increasing in popularity every night.

The protest requesting to have the Irwin cup race rescheduled has been disallowed by the regatta committee of the Hawaii yacht club. The committee is in receipt of a very sportsmanlike letter from the protestant in which he states his entire willingness to abide by their decision and says that he is glad to have a regatta committee that knows its own mind.

There will be a special meeting of the C. A. C. at the Chinese Y. M. C. A. at 7 o'clock this evening. All members are requested to attend as very important matters have to be decided.

British naval officers entertained Admiral Ijichi and his staff at an official dinner during their stay in Seattle.
